Just consolidating my information, and here is something maybe useful.

Deaths Jun 1847 (>99%)

Bosanko Jane Helston 9 73 Scan available - click to view

This is through FreeBMD, vital records transcribed from the registrations. It does fit, and could be Jane nee Barrett. No ages given on these early ones though. No parish either, but likely Crowan?

[Sent to peregrin@itis.com, and returned. Since then, I found the Bosanko web pages. Noticed also that Jane Bosanko, widow, is listed at Illogan. Which may or may not conflict with what I say below. May be two men the same age called Abraham Bosanko born Crowan?]

Greetings! I found your "Cornish Genealogy" WorldConnect submission when searching for clues about the above named person. I found your ancestry of this man and his descent very interesting. Another WorldConnect family tree and one on another site, has his parents as Thomas Bosanko and Mary CHERGWIN (you have CHERGIN). The version with the W is more likely in Cornwall.

This family is not in our Cornish family lines, but I came to it by a devious path in looking for an answer to "Who was Granny Williams" who raised one of my husband's aunts, backalong. Here are some of the stops along the way.

1901 Tretharrup Cottage, [next place enumerated was Curtiss Cross], St Martin,
Rebecca Williams, head, widow, 70 Retired rag and bone merchant b St Martin
Mary Hendy, boarder, 10, b St Martin
Flossie Mercia, boarder, 2, b Mullion
John Moyle, boarder, 5, b Helston
[This is our Mary age 10; so REBECCA is granny WILLIAMS' name and she is a widow.]

1891 Curtis Cross, St Martin
Rebecca Williams, widow age 57, general hawker, unemployed, b Breage
Mary Hendy, lodger singe age 21, domestic servant, b St Martin
[Rebecca, different age, and another Mary, the mother of the one above.]

1881 Curtises Cross, St Martin
Rebecca Williams, widow, 45, Marine Store Dealer, b Breage
Thomas H Williams, son 22, Stone Mason, b Breage
[Rebecca, another estimated age, and a son! This was an important clue. The only THOMS H anybody, the right age in reasonable places, I could find was baptized at Breage.]

Breage baptisms
15 Mar 1861 Thomas Henry Abraham & Rebecca BOSANQUET Church Town Miner E M Pridmore, Vicar
24 Mar 1865 Margaret Williams Abraham & Rebecca BOSANQUET Church Town Miner E M Pridmore, Vicar

Breage burial
Margaret Williams BOSANKO Church Town 18 Apr 1865 age 3 E M Pridmore, Vicar

[BOSANQUET, though an odd spelling, led me to the BOSANKO/BOSANCO listings at Breage, Crowan and Wendron parishes. I do not have access to Crowan or Wendron church records, so failed to find some things I was looking for. Is this the same Rebecca, I wondered. I believe it was.]
[1871 was a long search, but in Helston, the largest place in the area was Rebecca, widowed, with ,a daughter and a stepdaughter, and at Breage, Thomas H BOSANKO the right age. So this is the right track!]

[I did find a death registration for ABRAHAM BOSANKO Dec quarter 1868,age 64, Helston registration district. So that might be of interest to you. You have him married to Jane Barrett, who must have died before Abraham married Rebecca. I have not found any trace of this yet. I did find the marriage and death of son Thomas H Bosanko. Now to back up to 1861]

[The family is living at Breage, Rebecca's home parish, in 1861, with Mary 24, Eliza 4 and Thomas H 1. Eliza is listed as daughter 14 in 1871, so a child of Abraham and Rebecca. The family was at Crowan in 1851, with Jane age 14. I found nothing about this family for 1841 yet, unless the Wendron listing is it, at the bottom of this. Mary's age is a question. I have not searched for the registration. Jane is not with this lot. I found a marriage for a Jane Bosanko that fits, and connects to my original problem!]

I hope you can follow this convoluted trail. You listed children of ABRAHAM BOSANKO and JANE BARRETT, Abrahams's 2nd marriage and children are here in this long tale.

[I wonder if this is the right 1841 family? Transcribed incorrectly if so. The ages fit, considering that they are rounded down to the nearest 5. If this is right it might help with Mary's age.]

I am sorry this is so long, but I wanted to share all the evidence. Please reply when you have worked through this. If you have a death date and place for JANE (Barrett) BOSANKO, I would like to know it. The Bosanko family is not one of our family lines, but the challenge of "Who was Granny Williams" led to all this, which I find fascinating. Maybe you will find these details useful.

Thank you so much for getting back to me! I had not found Eliza Grace's baptism, just the other two, though there is a registration at Helston for an Eliza Bosanko March Quarter 1857 at Helston. I found this after I emailed to you. Must be her.

I suspect the burial transcription that says Margaret was 3 might have really been 3 months.

I realized the 1841 census I found was another family, after looking at some more records online, and crossed it out on my page. I will look at the 1841 for Crowan and get the right family.

I did find a marriage of Abraham Bosanko and Rebecca Williams (!!!!!) registered March Quarter 1851 at Helston. This is not in the Breage parish records transcribed, but these are faded and damaged so might not have been readable; could also be at Crowan, which is not online yet. If this is correct, it suggests Jane Barrett Bosanko died earlier than 1857. I have not found the Williams family with a Rebecca however.

Your dates for Mary and Jane make more sense than the ones on your WorldConnect site, which must have been submitted before you found the baptisms. Was there also a John and a Ben, or are these belonging to Alexander and Jane?

Thank you much. I don't suppose it matters to you who Rebecca was to begin with, but it is interesting to see her history, which is likely more typical of those times than we now think.

Dear Fayth,

I looked up a couple of BOSANKOs in the 1861 index at familyhistoryonline.net as follows:

Rebecca BOSANKO WI 30 F Breage

(Looks like Rebecca is a second wife which is supported by the 1871 census)

Bolenowe Croft
William BOSANKO HD 25 M Crowan
Ellen BOSANKO WI 25 F Camborne

Susan Jane BOSANKO DA 3 F Camborne

These 1861 indices don't seem to give employment. That's all I've splurged for so far. I'm wondering if I'd be better off just to buy the 1861 CD but then I'd have to figure out how to use it and doing it on that site is very mindless.

Enjoy,

[I did find a death registration for ABRAHAM BOSANKO Dec quarter 1868,age 64, Helston registration district. So that might be of interest to you. You have him married to Jane Barrett, who must have died before Abraham married Rebecca. I have not found any trace of this yet. I did find the marriage and death of son Thomas H Bosanko. Now to back up to 1861]

[The family is living at Breage, Rebecca's home parish, in 1861, with Mary 24, Eliza 4 and Thomas H 1. Eliza is listed as daughter 14 in 1871, so a child of Abraham and Rebecca. The family was at Crowan in 1851, with Jane age 14. I found nothing about this family for 1841 yet, unless the Wendron listing is it, at the bottom of this. Mary's age is a question. I have not searched for the registration. Jane is not with this lot. I found a marriage for a Jane Bosanko that fits, and connects to my original problem!]

[So Rebecca is a widow once again]

I hope you can follow this convoluted trail. You listed children of ABRAHAM BOSANKO and JANE BARRETT, Abrahams's 2nd marriage and children are here in this long tale.

[I wonder if this is the right 1841 family? Transcribed incorrectly if so. The ages fit, considering that they are rounded down to the nearest 5. If this is right it might help with Mary's age.]

I am sorry this is so long, but I wanted to share all the evidence. Please reply when you have worked through this. If you have a death date and place for JANE (Barrett) BOSANKO, I would like to know it. The Bosanko family is not one of our family lines, but the challenge of "Who was Granny Williams" led to all this, which I find fascinating. Maybe you will find these details useful.

Hi Fayth,
Thanks for your reply. Descendants of Alexander [119] are in wales. I am in touch with them. Alexander [119] and my Henry [118] lived next door to each other in Princess Street St Just in Penwith prior to Henry coming to Australia [found in census]. Interesting that of the 12 children we now have traced 5 and another died as a child - an assumption, there being 2 Marys [109 & 116] - it would seem likely. I need to write again to Audrey (Wales)to verify a few things, but haven't done so yet.
Edward's (115) daughter Mary Ann came to Australia with Henry [118]. Her descendants live in South Australia and it was only a chance comment by a family member who said that her mother had told her as a child that HER mother [Mary Ann] had come to Aus with her Uncle - reason unknown - that we knew this! This was a real help as it linked Henry [118] and Edward [115]. I have also had contact with another person in Sth Aust, related to John [112], but i am yet to chase this one up properly too.
So look forward to further developments!

Bye for now - Kay

Subject: Info on Bosanko family

Hi

I have found my great grandparent's marriage certificate (No. 172), but I have not been able to match my G Grandmother with any of the Bosanko's on your web pages. Perhaps this will help:

Sarah Jane Bosanko married George Bawden @ Centenary Methodist Church, Cambourne, District of Redruth, Cornwall on 27 December 1894. He was 23, she was 22. So that means she was born abt 1872. He was a wall mason, she was a draper's assistant.

They had a son, Clifford Stanley Bawden (My grand father). He was born in either England or South Africa. I know he died in South Africa in approx 1957. I think Sarah Jane died in South Africa.

If you have any information or can tell me who Sarah Jane Bosanko's parents were, I would be most grateful.

Regards

Hello Faith
I have just joined the Bosanko list. Kay pointed me to your Bosanko web site which is very impressive! Congratulations!

I am a descendant of Henry and Eleanor (Watters) Bosanko's daughter Ellen. She married John Terrell in Kooringa (Burra), South Australia in 1859. They were my great great grandparents. I have quite a bit of information on their descendants which I will send you. Unfortunately it is still in paper form so may take me a while to make electronic. What form do you prefer it? Would you rather wait until I have the whole lot entered, or would you like it in bits and pieces. I guess there could be one or two hundred names.

Best wishes

John Terrell

Hi Joan and List,

Re the list of everyone on the list - sorry, I should have replied earlier to this one.

From the edresses I have here are some stats on them, then perhaps those who would like to enlarge themselves can do so by posting what info they choose to divulge <G>. I can only tell country, not actual locations, unless told.

There are a total of 25 people on the list
US - 17
AUS - 5
UK - 3

I am happy to start the ball rolling.
My name is Kay Hinnrichsen, I was born in South Australia but have lived in Western Australia for 28 years. My mother was a BOSANKO. Her gt grandfather was Henry BOSANKO (1812, Crowan - 1870, Moonta, SA) who was the 11th of 12 children to Thomas and Mary CHERGIN. His siblings were:
Mary [1792 Crowan - ],
Samuel [1794 Crowan - ]

Dear Everyone

I am a recent arrival on the list, having found Kay's site while surfing the Web a few months ago. She turns out to be my 4th cousin, I think, as I too am descended from Henry BOSANKO (1812, Crowan - 1870, Moonta, SA) and Eleanor (Watters) BOSANKO. They came to South Australia in 1854 (Kay, do you know precise details?) and their daughter Ellen married John TERRELL in 1859 at the copper mining town of Kooringa (Burra). They were my great-great-grandparents. I have a photocopy of a photo of their headstone (unfortunately illegible, but it's a nice shape!) which I will send anyone who is interested. I think my father has the original photo, so I'll try to chase that up. Also a copy of a portrait of Ellen (which I have promised to send Kay but haven't done so yet - sorry)

I am keen to hear from any other branches of Henry and Eleanor's family, and from any other Bosanko descendants in Australia.

In particular, William Bosanko who was involved in various gold mining ventures around Bendigo and Avoca in Victoria in the 1850s-1870s. My initial guess is that he may be the son of Henry and Eleanor, born 1835. His son, possibly W.H. Bosanko, was a shopkeeper in Avoca in the 1880s. My interest here is that many of my MOTHER's ancestors also came from Avoca (FARNSWORTH, DODD, GILL) and their names appear linked with William BOSANKO in various documents and business ventures.

Season's Greetings to you all
John

Hi everyone,

To answer John:

Henry and Eleanor [nee WATTERS] came to SA from St Just in Cornwall. They lived in Princess Street in St Just in Penwith in 1851 and brother Alexander lived next door. This little gem is from the 1851 census that Audrey was kind enough to send to me some time ago [in the days of snail mail!!]. Both were tin miners. Alexander remained in Cornwall and was still there in the 1861 census, again from Audrey.
Henry was born in Camborne and Alexander in Crowan according to the census.

In 1851 both Henry & Eleanor were 36
William - 16 [miner] b Crowan
Henry - 13 [miner] b Crowan
Ellen - 10 b Breage
John - 7 b Breage

My gt grandfather Thomas Richard Eustice was born in 1853 in St Just. The family sailed on the 'Standard' from Plymouth on 10 September 1854 with Captain Blyth and arrived in Port Adelaide, South Australia on 18 December 1854. Also Mary thier niece came with them [daughter of Edward].
Henry is buried in the Moonta cemetery. He died 30 April 1870 of Tuberculosis aged 58 years .

I have no leads on William - John, I would be interested in what you have on him.
Henry jr was also a mystery until I discovered the death at Prince Alfred Mines - I feel sure that that must have been him - but will we ever know?
I do not think he could have married.

Death Records that I have are :

William BOSANKO; June 25 1905; 72 years; labourer; residence, Wallaroo Mines; died of Acute Bronchitis at Wallaroo Mines

1905
72
1833

Ellen BOSANKO; March 7 1891; aged 77; widow of the late Henry BOSANKO, miner; residence, Moonta Mines; died of Atheroma Sanguineous Apoplexy 1 month paralysis at Moonta Mines. [It would seem she had a stroke!]

Richard Thomas Eustice BOSANKO; Sept 10 1895; aged 42; miner; residence, Wallaroo Mines; died as a result of accidentally falling from the ladder in Elders shaft, Wallaroo Mines.

Marriage Records that I have :

Thomas BOSANKO; 23; Batchelor; Miner of Wallaroo Mines; Father - Henry Bosanko; to Margaret GRILLETT; 19; spinster of Wallaroo Mines; father - George Grillett. Married 1 June 1876 in house of Mr Grillett. This is TRE, mt gt grdf . It seems he was known as Thomas

James STEPHENS; 46; widower; miner of Moonta Mines; father, James Stephens; to Elizabeth BOSANKO; 42; spinster; domestic of Moonta Mines;father Edward BOSANKO on 12 Oct 1878 daughter of

Joan - the minister was Richard Carlyon Yeoman [ Bible Christian] **

Thomas VENNERD; 36; widower March 1877; miner of Moonta Mines to Jemima BOSANKO; 32; spinster of Moonta Mines; father Edward Bosanko on 13 Sept 1879.
daughter of

 Who is this Edward?? I am sure that it is Henry's [snr] brother but whether he came out to Aus I do not know. Elizabeth, Jemima and Mary did....... Mary WITTO [nee BOSANKO] was witness to Jemima's marriage.

Cheers - Kay

SOURCES OF INFORMATION

OTHER MARRIAGES

This is a list from a commercial directory of 1881, of the names of people providing goods and services in the town of Avoca on the central Victorian goldfields.Some of the spellings in the directory were incorrect. For example, "Jas. Dood" should be "Jas. Dodd." These errors are reproduced according to the original document. Also, I scanned the list from the appendix of a book and used Optical Character Recognition to turn it into text. This is not foolproof and may have resulted in a few more errors. Most have been edited out, but I suggest you do a manual search of the text if a Browser or Word Processor search fails to the find the name you are looking for.

I take no responsibility for any errors in the text. I scanned it in 1995 with a 300 DPI hand scanner, and Optical Character Recognition is not perfect! For example, my OCR program tended to confuse "1" and "l" (one & ell); put "i" for "y"; "c" for "e"; & "O" for "0". So, "Kelly" could be Ke1 1y" and "Irvine" could be "Irvinc" for example. I edited out most errors with the help of a speller and grammar checker, but best to check manually if a computer search fails to find the name you are looking for, especially if it contains the lower case letters l,i,e,y.

If anyone is interested in the Avoca area, I suggest you write to the Avoca Historical Society, c/- Mrs Jan Burnett, 92 Barnett St, Avoca, VIC 3467. Jan is very helpful, and the society has a lot of information.Or, you may visit their website.

 Thanks John, I for one have not heard that explanation. ***

Dear Bosankos

This is my first posting to the list, so I hope its not something you all know already.

This entry from "A Dictionary of Surnames" by Patricia Hanks and Flavia Hodges (Oxford U.P., 1989) seems to suggest the various spellings are a bit interchangeable.

"BOSANQUET
1. Cornish: habitation name from Bosanketh [I guess this must be somewhere near Penzance as its grid ref. is 50 deg 04.8'N, 5 deg 39.4'W], so called from Cornish "bos, bod" dwelling + a personal name of uncertain form.
2. English, of Huguenot origin: nickname for a short person, from the S French dialect term "bouzanquet" dwarf.

The name is said to have been brought to England in 1685 by Jean and David Bosanquet, Huguenot refugees from Lunel in Languedoc. However the surname Bosancoth is recorded in Cornwall as early as 1525. Many Huguenot settlers estabished themselves in Cornwall, and it seems likely that two originally distinct surnames have here fallen together."

There's nothing under BOSANKO or BESANKO, though there is an entry for BESANC,ON which doesn't seem terribly relevant.

Cheers
John

<GGGGGG> Welcome to my gt grand aunt's gt gt grandson!!! [I think that describes it!!] Anyway, welcome John to the BOSANKO List!! I am so pleased you have the family trait of "stumbling" <G>. I am absolutely rapt! I have not been able to find anything much at all on my gt grandfather's siblings, so look forward to sharing info with you! There are several more pple on this list who will also connect.....way back..... I believe that John Waters BOSANKO was also in Burra but I have not followed that one up yet either. **.

Hello Kay
I stumbled across your web page today and found your Bosanko connections. This is very exciting for me as I rarely find anything quite so promising on the web!

My great great grandfather John Terrell from Camborne Cornwall married Ellen Bosanko in 1859 at Kooringa (Burra) S.A. She was born on 9th July 1840 at St Just Cornwall, and her parents were Henry and Eleanor. I presume these are your "Henry (1812 - 1870) m Eleanor WAT(T)ERS (1834)"

I have fairly full details of their descendants if you are interested (courtesy of a (distant) cousin Douglas Colin Terrell of Adelaide.

I'd be particularly interested in any further details you have of Ellen's family and ancestors. Could I also join your mailing list please?

Best wishes

John

FATAL ACCIDENT AT WALLAROO MINES

Quite a sensation was caused in Kadina and the Mines on Tuesday a little after noon, when the news of the death of Richard Thomas Eustice Besanko was made known, says the Kadina and Wallaroo Times.
The deceased who was 42 years of age, proceeded to attend to his duties as usual on Tuesday morning, and with his mate, John Nankervis went down on the ladder, everything being apparently being safe. After having done all that was necessary, the deceased started to climb up the ladder to the surface, his mate taking the gig. Before he travelled far Nankervis heard someone calling which he took to be the voice of Besanko. The next he saw was the deceased falling down the shaft. HE at once rang the signal, and went down again only to find the body, 3 of his ribs projecting through being broken in pieces. The left eye was destroyed and the face badly figured. Death being caused by haemorrhage of the blood vessels under the arm-pit of concussion of the brain.
An inquest was held in the evening, and after the evidence had been taken, the following verdict was returned - That Richard Thomas Eustice Besanko met his through accidentally falling from a ladder in Elder's Shft, Wallaroo Mines, no blame being attachable to anyone. The deceased leaves a widow and 5 children. The jurymen voted their fees for the benefit of those who are left to mourn their loss.
The funeral which was largely attended, took place on Wednesday afternoon. The body being conveyed to the Moonta cemetery for interment.

Taken from "Just A Split Second" a compilation of the Local Newspapers' Reports of 126 fatalities associated with the Moonta and Wallaroo Mines and Wallaroo Smelters - 1861 - 1924 by the Y P Family History Group in co-operation with the Moonta Branch of the National Trust of SA.
